STRATEGIC CHANGE LEADERSHIP FOR DIGITAL TRANSFORMATION

SHAPING
A BETTER
WORLD
SINCE 1845

Strategic Change Leadership for Digital Transformation is for experienced managers and leaders who seek to drive organisational transformation by acquiring the skills to thrive in changing-times.

This programme is about leading organisational change end-to-end. It is centred around the holistic, strategic level perspective of change management and leadership decision-making in a dynamic and technology-driven business environment. We shall develop a hands-on leadership playbook to identify strategic direction, inspire a case-for-change, stimulate organisational development and boost the organisation's competitive edge in our fast paced, digital world.

LEADERS ARE INSTRUMENTAL IN DRIVING STRATEGIC CHANGE

Change initiatives can 'make or break' leaders, and can substantially shape the fates of enterprises. The ability to continuously mobilize behavioural change has become a mission-critical capability of any organisation. It is a widely held view that some 70 per cent of change efforts are unsuccessful. While many reasons have been given for this, one thing is evident: effective strategic leadership is the defining component to driving organisational change and is a core requirement to survive in today's business world. There is a huge upside to it: leaders that are engaged and show a dynamic propensity to change are shown to be more likely to achieve superior performance and to galvanise their teams to greater success.

LEARN FROM THE EXPERTS AND RISE TO THE CHALLENGE

This programme will help reinvigorate leaders to thrive on the challenges of organisational transition and transformation. It will give you all the strategies, tools and tactics that have been successfully applied to complex and uncertain organisational contexts. You will learn everything from the 'big picture' items such as strategic choices, types, dynamics, inertia, processes and dimensions of organisational change, to the 'nuts & bolts' of orchestrating the transformation journey through engagement, communication, enablement and measurement. Putting insights into action, you will plot practical recommendations and solutions for your organisation to succeed.

IT IS A MATTER OF BOTH MIND-SET AND SKILL-SET

In a technology-driven economy, organisational transformation requires both a profound shift in mind-set towards new interaction models and high proficiency in virtual leadership skills.

Through case-based learning and interaction, you will acquire the mind-set and skill-set to be implement organisational change in an integrated way. Take away a leadership toolkit to strategize, disrupt and administer change. Return to your organisation with an actionable plan on how to effectively foster strategy-aligned progress as a business leader in the age of system-wide change.

MAXIMISE YOUR IMPACT THROUGH STRATEGIC CHANGE LEADERSHIP

Focusing on and improving the way we lead strategic change will have a direct impact on the overall effectiveness of the organisation, and on the personal impact of you as a leader.

This programme will equip you to explore the most important strategic change leadership issues faced by your organisation and assess the impact across operational boundaries and ecosystems. The programme will empower you to take on a change leadership role and powerfully deliver against your business goals, no matter how volatile the environment may be.

Now is the time to shape your leadership acumen for the future and strategize for change.
